

Denise Gabel

Author • Speaker • Can-do-ologist™

Denise is a Can-do-ologist; a person who sees life through the lens of can and an international bestselling author, professional speaker, and mentor on the power of change. The key to her success – both professionally and personally – comes down to how she sees opportunities that are presented to her, and how she tackles challenges that cross her path. She knows that she can tackle anything. And she does.

As with most Can-doers, however, Denise finds joy in empowering others to embrace the power of can. In fact, she's made it her life's work to do so. She encourages everyone she meets to stand in their authentic power, realize that they can generate their own happiness, and support leaders and organizations in creating a vibe that attracts Can-doers and retains them. Throughout her professional career, she has embraced (and inspired others to embrace) living with a can-do mindset – which has helped her and the teams she has led get the right things done with enthusiasm.

Suggested Questions

- 1 Have you always been a Can-doer? And when did you realize that you had a can-do mindset?
- 2 What can a team of Can-doers create and how does an organization foster a culture that attracts can-doers?
- 3 If someone isn't a Can-doer, can they become one? Is Can-do-ology something that is teachable?
- 4 What do Can-doers need to thrive?

Connect with Denise

✉ Denise@can-do-ology.com

☎ 888-665-7774

💻 can-do-ology.com

Suggested Topics

Creating a
Can-Do Culture

The Power of a Single Choice

Empowering and Growing Can-Do
Leaders

Can-Do-Ology™